(d) mr Abdul Ghani, Dt judge II class (permanent) ... Dt judge I class (Ag) from 18.6.35 vice ~~mr H.H.~~ vacancy no (5) above mr S.R. Ramaswamy Iyer, Dt judge III class permanent ... Dt judge II class (Ag) from 18.6.35 vice mr Abdul Ghani acting in I class.

3) In this connection it may be submitted that mr M. Rama Rao Ag. Dt judge doing duty as Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of H.H. the Maharaja, is given a rank in the cadre of Dt judges just above mr Abdul Ghani and seconded in the Judicial department. On this basis he would be the most Senior officer among the acting District judges, but the High Court's letter is entirely silent about mr Rama Rao. In connection with a recent representation from mr Rama Rao for confirmation and promotion in existing vacancies, the Huzur Secretary was informed that the question could be taken up only after the question of confirmation or otherwise of mr Narayanaswamy Naidu was decided Orders have since issued, directing the reversion of Mr C. Narayanaswamy Naidu to the grade of Subordinate judge.

4) One other point that may be mentioned in this connection is that the extra cost on account of the promotion of Mr Rama Rao, will be borne by the Palace and not be a charge on Govt Funds.

5) It is for orders whether the case of Rama Rao may not be considered in this connection and whether the High Court may be consulted in the matter.

6) Though the permanent vacancy in the III grade is available from 14.8.34, the High Court have recommended filling up the vacancy only from 1.1.1935, but this is a matter left to the High Court.

7) One point that arises for consideration in this connection, is the case of Mr. M. Rama Rao. Reference is invited to the Correspondence ending with Hezur Secretary's D.O. letter No. 494 d. 24-2-1932 in which it was intimated that it would not be convenient to spare the services of the officer for work in the Judicial Dept. and that he might be "seconded and given promotions as accrue to him in the Judl.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

File No. of 193 . General and Revenue Secretariat

It was further stated that the excess of his emoluments over Rs 700 p.m. would be paid from Palace Funds. So the position in respect of this officer is that he is not expected to ~~~~ actually work in the Judicial Dept. ~~~~ but his name is to be borne in the cadre of Mat. Dept. and grade promotions given in that cadre as they accrue from time to time. This was explained to the High court in a letter dated 19.3.32 addressed to the Hon chief Justice. E The extra cost on account of ~~~~ Mr. Rama Rao's promotion in the Jud. cadre will not be a charge on ~~~~ Government funds, and ~~~~ his nominal promotion in the Dept. may not ~~~~ materially affect the offrs actually working in the Judicial Dept. as they can also get promotions (on a P.P tenure) vice Mr. Rama Rao Seconded. On the basis of the above understanding, the High Court recommended the ~~~~ grade promotion of Mr. Rama Rao from Subordinate judge to acting Dt. Judge in November 1932 in a temporary vacancy and this was approved by Govt.

8) In the recommendations now sent up the High Court make no mention of Mr Rama Rao at all — probably because he is not an officer working in the Dept. and the High Court do not feel called upon to say anything about him. ~~~~ however the proposals of the High Court ~~~~ a man below Mr Rama Rao in the list a promotion

Mr. M. Rama Rao is ~~senior~~ senior to Mr C. Abdul Ghani whom the High Court propose to confirm in the III Grade and to promote to II & I grades also in an acting capacity. This by implication would ~~result in~~ mean the continuance of Mr M. Rama Rao as acting III Dt. Judge. He is now nearly 54 years of age and the permanency of his tenure was a very material bearing on his pension also. In case Mr. Rama Rao be given the promotions proposed in the case of Mr C. Abdul Ghani, the latter officer may not suffer materially as he could be P.P. in III grade & acting in higher grades vice Mr. Rama Rao. ~~If it is~~ If it is deemed necessary to consider Mr. Rama Rao's claims in this connection, it is for consideration whether the High Court may be consulted if they have any objection to the confirmation of Mr Rama Rao in III & giving of acting promotions in higher grades to him, and allowing the other promotions as vice Mr Rama Rao. One other point is whether the confirmation of Mr. Rama Rao may be from 14.8.34 — from which date the vacancy is available — in view of [illegible] possible effect on his pension.

Proposal to fill up certain vacancies in the cadre of District Judges.

The High Court have in their letter dated the 18th July 193[illegible] forwarded certain proposals in regard to filling up of vacancies in the cadre of District Judges consequent on the appointment of Mr. N.K. Srinivasa Rao as temporary Judge of the High Court and the grant of leave to Mr. H.M. Krishnaswami, District Judge, and his retirement with effect from 18th June 1935. The letter made no mention as to the place to be assigned to Mr. M. Rama Rao, Asstant Secretary to His Highness, who is borne in the cadre of District Judges and ranks therein above Mr. C. Abdul Ghani. The attention of the High Court was drawn to Chief Secretary's D.O. letter No.3609/C.B.130-31-3 dated the 19th March 1932 to the Chief Justice in which it was intimated that it would not be convenient to spare the services of Mr. Rama Rao from the Palace for work in the Judicial Department, but that he would however continue to be borne on the cadre of the Judicial Department and seconded therein and given such promotions as might accrue to him from time to time in that Department. The High Court was asked that in view of the above decision, they have any objection to Mr. Rama Rao getting the benefit of confirmations and promotions in the cadre of District Judges that would be admissible on the basis of his existing position in the cadre. The Registrar,

High Court of Mysore, Bangalore.

My Dear Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. R.O.C.104 dated the 18th July 1935 forwarding the recommendation of the High Court in regard to certain appointments and promotions in the cadre of District Judges. It is observed that no mention is made in your letter as to the place to be assigned in the cadre to Mr. M. Rama Rao, Assistant Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja, who is borne in the cadre of District Judges and ranks therein above Mr. C.Abdul Ghani. I am to invite reference in this connection to the correspondence ending with Mr. N.Madhava Rau's D.O. letter No.3609/C.B.130-31-3 dated the 19th March 1932 to the Chief Justice, (Copy enclosed for ready reference) in which it was intimated that it would not be convenient to spare the services of Mr. M.Rama Rao from the Palace for work in the Judicial Department, but that he would however continue to be borne on the cadre of the Judicial Department and seconded therein and given such promotions as might accrue to him from time to time in that Department.

I am to state that Mr. M.Rama Rao attains the age of superannuation in Septr.36 and he is not likely to revert to the Judicial Department before his retirement. While any improvement of his position in the Judicial cadre may affect his emoluments and pension, the extra cost on this account will not be a charge on Govt. funds. As he is seconded in the cadre, his grade to grade promotion therein may not materially affect the officers actually working in the Department.

In the circumstances, Government will be glad to know whether the High Court have any objection to Mr. M. Rama Rao getting the benefit of confirmations and promotions in the cadre of District Judges that would be admissible on the basis of his existing position in the cadre, the officer next to him in the cadre being shown against Mr. Rama Rao on other duty.

Yours sincerely,

Offg. Chief Secretary.
